Art. 6) Admission test and evaluation criteria.

1. The admission test consists of solving sixty questions, each of which has five answer options, from which the candidate must select only one correct answer while discarding incorrect, arbitrary, or less probable conclusions, covering topics in:
 - Reading skills and knowledge acquired in studies - 4 (four) questions;
 - Logical reasoning and problems - 5 (five) questions;
 - Biology - 23 (twenty-three) questions;
 - Chemistry - 15 (fifteen) questions;
 - Physics and mathematics - 13 (thirteen) questions;

The topics are selected based on the programs listed in Annex A of D.M. 1082/2023.

A total of one hundred minutes is allotted for completing the test.

The questions for the admission test, which are identical throughout the national territory, are prepared by the M.U.R. in collaboration with the CINECA Consortium for question preparation, and a special Commission is responsible for validating these questions based on the programs outlined in Annex A of D.M. No. 1082/2023 mentioned above.

The examination programs are also available on the M.U.R. website.

The evaluation criteria for the competitive exam are as follows:

- a. 1.5 points for each correct answer;
 - b. minus 0.4 (-0.4) points for each incorrect answer;
 - c. 0 points for each unanswered question.
2. Based on the scores calculated according to the aforementioned evaluation criteria, CINECA compiles a single national ranking for both community and non-community candidates referred to in Article 26 of Law No. 189 of 2002, following the procedures outlined in Annex 1 of D.M. No. 1082/2023.
 3. The ranking for non-community citizens residing abroad is defined by each of the Universities. In case of a tie in scores, the following criteria are applied:

- 3.1 The candidate's score on the questions related to the topics of biology, chemistry, physics, and mathematics, logical reasoning and problems, and reading skills and knowledge acquired in studies, in decreasing order of importance.
- 3.2 The possession, by the closing date of registrations, of the language certifications listed in Annex 3, as declared by the candidate at the time of registration for the test. The possession of language certifications required for candidates in the context of this decree is self-certified and provided in accordance with Article 46 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000 mentioned above. The authorities involved in this procedure reserve the right, at any stage of the procedure, to verify the accuracy of the declaration made by the candidate in accordance with current regulations. Therefore, the candidate must provide all necessary information to allow for appropriate verification. In cases where the documentation provided by the candidate contains false or misleading statements, subject to the penalties provided by the penal code and special laws, as well as potential claims for damages by the affected parties, the candidate's enrollment, if any, will be canceled, any benefits granted will be revoked, and the fees and university contributions paid will be retained.
- 3.3 In case of a tie between one or more disabled candidates with a disability certificate equal to or greater than 66% or disabled candidates with a certificate according to Law No. 104 of 1992, Article 3, Paragraph 3, and one or more candidates not falling into the aforementioned categories, preference is given to the disabled candidate(s) with a disability certificate equal to or greater than 66% or the disabled candidate with a certificate according to Law No. 104 of 1992, Article 3, Paragraph 3. The disabled candidate with a disability certificate equal to or greater than 66% or the disabled candidate with a certificate according to Law No. 104 of 1992, Article 3, Paragraph 3, who wishes to assert this preference in the event of a tie with another candidate not falling into the aforementioned categories must provide the University where they are "assigned" with the relevant certificate of disability or certification according to Law No. 104 of 1992, Article 3, Paragraph 3, within the deadline of 15 (fifteen) days from the assignment, including the first day. Failure to meet this deadline will result in the undocumented preference not being considered.
- 3.4 Outside the case referred to in point 3), in the event of further ties, the younger candidate by age prevails.
4. Community and non-community candidates referred to in Article 26 of Law No. 189 of 2002 who score at least 20 out of 90 (twenty out of ninety) in the test are considered eligible for the competitive test. Candidates who do not meet this requirement, i.e., those who score below 20/90 (twenty out of ninety), are not included in the ranking.
5. In accordance with European Union guidelines on the admission of foreign students to higher education, in line with the foreign cultural policy needs outlined in Article 46 of Presidential Decree No. 394/99, concerning reserved places for candidates from non-European Union countries residing abroad, the minimum eligibility threshold mentioned in the previous paragraph does not apply. Candidates falling into this category are eligible only if they have scored above zero (0).
6. Candidates from non-European Union countries residing abroad who do not provide answers to any of the questions are not included in the ranking.
7. The status of eligible non-winners applies only to the ongoing selection process and does not confer any rights related to access to the master's degree program in subsequent years.

Art. 7) Ammissione test: conduct – candidate obligations – surveillance.

At the time of the test, each candidate is given an envelope prepared by CINECA on behalf of M.U.R. Each envelope contains:

- a. A form for personal data that the candidate must fill out without any identifying codes;
- b. Questions related to the admission test, each marked with an identifying code, and two sheets for rough work;
- c. A response form with the same identifying code as the envelope;
- d. A sheet with the envelope's identifying code and information about the University and the degree program to which the test refers.

The replacement of any of the documents mentioned in points b) and c) during the test, even for a single document, results in the complete replacement of the envelope since these documents bear the same identifying code as the envelope. Corrections or marks made by the candidate on the personal data form do not require the replacement of the form. The commission only replaces the personal data form when the candidate's marks or corrections objectively hinder the identification of the candidate. In this case, the commission replaces the personal data form from one of the reserve envelopes and documents this in the minutes.

However, the replacement of the personal data form never involves the replacement of the entire envelope.

Before the start of the test, the President of the Examination Commission or the responsible person in the venue or abroad draws lots among four students from the candidates present in the room to verify the integrity of the boxes. They then open the boxes and distribute the envelopes based on the number of participants. Each candidate is given an "instructions for completing the response form" sheet before the test. The President of the Examination Commission or the responsible person in the venue also prepares and signs a declaration for the operations mentioned above, which includes:

- 1.1) Confirmation of the integrity of the boxes;
- 1.2) The number of assigned envelopes;
- 1.3) The number of unused envelopes;
- 1.4) The number of envelopes replaced, with reasons.
- 1.5) This declaration must also be signed by the four selected students.

On the day of the exam, the President of the Commission or the responsible person also prepares the minutes according to the format provided by M.U.R.

In case one or more candidates report irregularities regarding the received envelope, the President of the Commission or the responsible person verifies the credibility of the reports and, if necessary, replaces the envelope. This operation must be documented in the minutes along with the reasons. Replaced envelopes are not considered discarded material but must be properly stored according to the provisions of Annex 1 to D.M. No. 1082/2023.

Candidates must use only a black indelible pen provided by the University or the foreign venue for filling out the response form.

The candidate marks their chosen response by placing an 'X' in the corresponding box (by drawing a diagonal line in the square of the chosen answer). Candidates have the option to correct one and only one answer already given to a question, ensuring that the previously marked box is completely blackened with an 'X', and selecting a different answer. In any case, only one 'X' must appear in one of the five boxes for the score to be attributed.

The response form includes a small circular figure corresponding to the sequential number of each question. To indicate their intention not to respond, the student must mark this figure.

Once marked, this indication cannot be changed. If the candidate does not mark any response boxes, even if they do not cross out the circular figure, the response is considered unanswered. There should be no signatures or identifying marks on the response form, as this would result in the annulment of the test.

At the end of the test, each candidate will be asked to go to a designated station equipped with a special pen, placed at an appropriate distance from the commission, where they will find:

- A box for submitting the personal data form, with a facsimile of the personal data form on one side;
- Pairs of adhesive labels with barcodes.

Each candidate must choose an identical pair of adhesive labels from those available and affix one label to the personal data form and the other to the response form. The application of labels must be the exclusive responsibility of the candidate, who must ensure that the alphanumeric codes on the labels of the chosen pair match. The candidate must then sign the personal data form at the bottom, confirming the accuracy of the personal data and the matching of the codes on the labels affixed to the personal data form and the response form.

After these operations, the candidate must place the personal data form inside the closed container provided at the dedicated station and then proceed to another dedicated station where they insert the response form into a separate closed container specifically designed for this purpose. The candidate must ensure that the side of the response form containing the answers provided faces downward when inserted into the container.

In addition to the response form and the personal data form, the candidate must also submit the sheets containing the questions related to the test and the control sheet for the envelope. The President of the Commission or the responsible person will then:

- Seal the containers with the response forms in the presence of the candidates who are called upon to verify the integrity of the boxes or, in case they are unable to do so, in the presence of another four candidates selected at random;
- Seal the containers with the personal data forms in the presence of the candidates who are called upon to verify the integrity of the boxes or, in case they are unable to do so, in the presence of another four candidates selected at random;
- Sign the labels used to seal the containers;
- Invite the four students to sign the same label already signed by the President of the commission.
- Prepare additional containers in which returned envelopes that have been replaced, envelopes from which personal data forms have been removed, as well as unused envelopes, the declaration mentioned in this article, and the copy of the minutes of the session with the lists of candidates, will be counted, enclosed, and sealed.

Candidates are prohibited from carrying bags or backpacks, books or notes, paper, cell phones, and other electronic devices, including smartphones, smartwatches, personal digital assistants, webcams, tablets, and laptops of any kind capable of connecting to external networks in wireless mode or to the normal telephone network using UMTS, GPRS, GSM protocols, under penalty of test annulment. Therefore, candidates are prohibited from bringing the following items into the test venue: cell phones, smartphones, smartwatches, personal digital assistants, and similar devices. Candidates found in possession of such devices must hand them over to the personnel responsible for identification before entering the test room. Candidates are also prohibited from bringing textbooks, school texts, handwritten notes, and reference materials into the test venue. During the test, candidates are not allowed to communicate verbally or in writing with each other or to establish contact with others, except with members of the Commission or the Supervision Committee or with the technical-administrative staff responsible for supervision.

Candidates who violate the provisions of this article will have their test annulled by the Commission, and they will be excluded from the competition.

Art. 8) Causes for test cancellation.

The tests may be cancelled, and the candidate may be disqualified from the competition if:

1. The candidate takes the test in an examination room different from the one designated according to the room lists, unless such a change has been authorized by the Examination Commission, as indicated in the respective minutes.
2. The candidate brings mobile phones, PDAs, smartphones, smartwatches, or other similar devices, as well as textbooks, school texts, handwritten notes, or reference materials, into the examination room, as already specified in Article 7 of this announcement.
3. The response form (both front and back) is signed or marked by the candidate or a member of the Commission.
4. Interaction between candidates is detected and/or attempts to exchange any material, including the exchange of personal data and/or response forms, in the possession of candidates.
5. The candidate uses pens, pencils, or any other writing instrument to make modifications, additions, or corrections to the response form during the process of inserting the personal data form and the response form into the designated containers.

The invalidation of the test is ordered by the Commission. In cases 1), 2), 3), 4), and 5), CINECA does not determine the score for the invalidated test. The test may also be invalidated if the personal data form contains cancellations and/or abrasions or indicates data that, at the Commission's absolute discretion, do not allow for the certain identification of the author of the paper.

Article 9) Obligations and Deadlines - Publication of the National Ranking.

On the 26th of October 2023, CINECA, on behalf of the M.U.R., will publish, in the reserved area for candidates and in compliance with regulations for the protection of personal data, exclusively on the website www.universitaly.it, the scores obtained by candidates according to the label code.

These data will remain available until the end of the procedure in the reserved area for candidates.

Starting from the day following the publication date of the test results and within 5 working days, the Officer in charge of this University's procedure will send to CINECA, through a reserved website, the identification data of each student taken from the personal data sheet and the scanned individual personal data sheets in PDF format. A detailed report of these operations shall be made available to the Ministry of University and Research on the reserved website.

On the 31st of October 2023, in the reserved area of the University portal, candidates can view their own work, their score, and their personal data sheet.

On the 7th of November 2023, the nominative ranking of both community and non-community candidates residing in Italy as per Art. 26 of Law no. 189 of 2002 is published in the reserved area. For each candidate, it indicates the obtained score, the ranking position, and the university location where they are assigned ("ASSEGNATO"), taking into account the ranking position of all preceding candidates and their preferences for location, or it may indicate "PRENOTATO" (reserved) or "in attesa" (waiting). The ranking for non-community candidates residing abroad is also published on the University's website, on the Admission to Degree Courses A.Y. 2023/2024 page and at the Student Affairs Office of Medicine and Surgery, Naples, and Dentistry and Dental Prosthetics. This publication serves as an official notification to those concerned.

Regarding the ranking and the number of available slots at universities, the names of those who are ASSIGNED or RESERVED for the course and location as their first useful preference are also published. Each University receives a list of these candidates.

Candidates, at each ranking review:

- a. Who fall within the available slots for their first useful preference are ASSIGNED and are required to enroll at the assigned location and course within the deadlines specified in point 10, letter b) of Annex 2 to D.M.1082/2023 (within a maximum period of 4 days, including the day of ranking or review publication, excluding Saturdays and holidays). Failure to meet the deadlines results in the candidate forfeiting the right to enrollment, and any justifying reason for the delay will not be considered (failure to enroll on time for those assigned implies forfeiture of the same);
- b. Who do not fall within the available slots for their first useful preference are RESERVED for a subsequent choice. In this case, candidates can still enroll at the location and course where they are RESERVED within the deadlines specified in point 10, letter b) of Annex 2 to D.M.1082/2023 (within a maximum period of 4 days, including the day of ranking or review publication, excluding Saturdays and holidays) or wait until the end of enrollments by candidates ranking higher to possibly become available for better preferences. If a RESERVED candidate enrolls, all other expressed preferences are automatically canceled.

Within 5 days of the publication of the ranking and each subsequent review, and no later than 12:00 noon on the fifth day following the aforementioned publications, excluding Saturdays and holidays, each University, through its reserved website, must communicate the names of enrolled students to CINECA.

Within 5 days of the publication of the ranking and each subsequent review, and no later than 12:00 noon on the fifth day following the aforementioned publications, excluding Saturdays and holidays, ALL CANDIDATES, except for those who have enrolled and those who have renounced enrollment offers, and candidates who fall under the category of "posti esauriti" (exhausted slots), must confirm their interest in enrollment in the reserved area of the University website. In the absence of confirmation, the candidate is removed from the national rankings and loses any right to enrollment.

The justifying reason for not confirming interest has no relevance since this brief computer procedure can be delegated to trusted third parties within the five days allowed to perform the confirmation operation.

On the 15th of November 2023, CINECA will proceed, based on merit and preferences expressed, to publish a new ranking review using the aforementioned procedures. Subsequent ranking reviews will replicate the procedures and deadlines mentioned above until the ministerial decision to close the rankings.
